Dear Captain

As per the agency confirmation, the rest of the bunker will be supplied tomorrow PM, regarding the LS
Kindly see below explanation from supplier, in case you need to perform the non availability report.

Italo / Majo

Please refer to the below explanation from Chevron regarding the cancellation of the LSFO.

Please advise which will be your next Bunker port in order to look for avails and price indications,
thanks! :D

Rodrigo,

As per our conversation. Over the past 2 weeks we've had weather issues and operational issues. At this moment, we will not have LSFO for the Stealth II. She is sailing at 1200 and we will not have any LSFO loaded in Pascagoula until late PM tomorrow night.

I am terribly sorry for the inconvenience.

Kind Regards,
